

CAPITAL CONNECTIONS NEWS

Helping adults and youth find employment and build careers that lead to job satisfaction and financial stability.

Need a job but don't know where to start? Try NCWorks!

Anything from a poorly constructed resume to legal missteps can make getting hired even more difficult. NCWorks will help you prepare BEFORE connecting you to employers! Just call and NCWorks can help you.

- Identify and improve your skills
- Build the best resume
- Obtain training tuition scholarships
- Job search the right way
- and land that job!

Call
(919) 715-0111
or visit
Accessncworks.com

NextGen: Small steps forward lead to the achievement of large goals

Some young people are facing life events and issues that are affecting their future. NextGen helps to remove those roadblocks and put them on the road to success. Whether it's run-ins with the law or having to stop work to handle personal issues, NextGen can provide tools, training, and support that assist with—

- Tutoring
- Leadership Development
- Career Counseling
- Job Training
- Work Experience
- Goal setting
- Being a responsible employee
- Planning for career advancement
- Success attitudes

ATTN: Minority & Woman-Owned Businesses!

Small businesses are JOB CREATORS and we want you to succeed! Catalyst 2020 provides up to $20K to train existing workers in areas necessary for business success. Companies must have been in business the past 12 months, have at least 5 employees over the age of 18 and be current on state and local taxes.

Interested? Contact Kimberly Wheeler at 919-856-6046 for all requirements.

Wake County is focused on equitable and inclusive economic development programs for small businesses, entrepreneurs, minority and woman-owned businesses! The Small Business Resource Guide contains valuable information that will save you time and money down the road. Find the Guide and more at Raleigh-wake.org/business-advantages.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

Everyone you will ever meet knows something you don't.

If you know of a 16-24 year old in Wake County who needs help, contact Alicia Price at 919-803-2377. Johnston County residents should call Amanda Tyndall at 919-934-1029 x224.

Eligibility requirements apply.

Businesses from all over the Triangle will be hiring at the Clayton Community Center on May 9th.

Check out ST Wooten, FedEx, Credit Suisse, Duke, Pike Electric, and Wake Government!

The Clayton Community Center is located at 715 Amelia Church Road. Bring plenty of resumes and dress to impress!

FREE WORKSHOPS FOR JOB SEEKERS

If you're looking for work, especially if you've been trying for some time, you may be missing something. These workshops will help you figure it out and correct what's holding you back.

These FREE workshops are held at the NCWorks Career Center at 1830 Tillery Place in Raleigh. All workshops start at 9:00 am!

Workshop	Date
Work Histories, Applications and Resumes	May 3rd
Digital Literacy to Compete in a Tech-savvy Culture	May 6 & 13
Resume Style and Organization	May 7th
Confidence Focused Interviewing	May 8th
LinkedIn for Job Seekers	May 15th
Creating Stellar Cover Letters	May 16th
Resume Style and Organization	May 21st
Confidence Focused Interviewing	May 22nd
Introduction to Entrepreneurship	May 30th
Getting an Edge on the Competition: Electronic Resume Tips	May 31st

Find full descriptions on the Events Calendar at NCWorks.gov or call 919-715-0111. You can also chat live online with a representative at Accessncworks.com

CAPITAL CONNECTIONS

Helping people find employment and build careers that lead to job satisfaction and financial stability.

About Capital Area Workforce Development

CAWD is a public-private partnership and 501 (c)3 largely funded by the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) of 2014. Through collaborations with business, government, education and others in Wake and Johnston Counties, the organization has developed state and nationally-recognized workforce programs, connected businesses to the education system and workforce resources, and helped thousands to gain employment and contribute to the prosperity of the community. CAWD oversees job seeker services at NCWorks Career Centers located throughout Wake and Johnston counties.

If you have questions about this publication or wish to be removed from the mailing list, call 919-856-5390 or email CAWD@wakegov.com.

